Re: Bradshaw v. Fletcher, et al

19-CV-0428(BKS)(TWD)

Dear Judge Sannes:

I am the plaintiff and am proceeding pro se in the above-referenced matter. I respectfully request that the Court accept this letter as my objections to the ~~Text~~ Order, via Text Notice, dated February 26, 2021 by Theresa Wiley Dancks, U.S.M.J. The order is in regard to my Motion to Compel in which the Judge state "Response to Motion due by 3/4/2021. No Reply permitted." My objections are as follows:

First, defendants has not adequately <sup>provided</sup> ~~responded to~~ initial mandatory discovery, and defendant have not in good faith <sup>responded</sup> ~~in responding~~ to my discovery request. Therefore, I submitted a Reply dated February 26, 2021 to defendants response. This reply is necessary to counter defendants' additional <sup>arguments</sup> ~~response~~ raised in their response. Judge Dancks decision not to permit a reply is an abuse of discretion and can ultimately prevent me from challenging defendants arguments to leave them undisputed.

Second, I have in good faith disclosed initial mandatory discovery on October 11, 2020 and February 7, 2021, pursuant to this Court's order.

For the above-stated reasons, I respectfully request ~~that my Reply to be~~ ~~that I to be allowed~~ permitted and considered by the Court when deciding my Motion to Compel.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 I declare that, on this date, I cause the defendants attorney to be served with a copy of this letter brief by First -Class United States Mail at the address below,

P.S. I request for the Court to grant me a copy of an updated copy of the Court's docket sheet.

Respectfully submitted,

Mr. Jay Bradshaw
